

Enrollment and Materials Fact Sheet

In order to participate at any level of the 2011 Spelling Bee, each school must officially enroll with the Scripps National Spelling Bee program. Enrollment begins on Tuesday, August 17, 2010, and continues through Friday, October 15, on the Scripps National website, www.spellingbee.com.

Enrollment and Materials Fee

The materials and enrollment fee for the 2011 Scripps National Spelling Bee program is $99 per participating school (public, private, parochial, charter, online/virtual school) and home school association. The fee for an individual home school family who is not part of a home school association is $10. Fees are paid directly through Scripps; The Dallas Morning News does not accept or process payments.

Study Materials

In exchange for the fee, schools receive unlimited online access to important study materials. These include:

- Study materials for students
- Classroom Pronouncer Guide
- School Pronouncer Guide

The Dallas Morning News Regional Spelling Bee

The 53rd Annual Dallas Morning News Spelling Bee will be held March 26, 2011. To participate in the Regional Bee, a student must win the county-level Bee.

Questions

Please refer all questions regarding enrollment fees and study materials to the Scripps National Spelling Bee at bee@scripps.com.